

*"Lectio Divina", a Latin term, means "divine reading" and describes a way of reading the Scriptures whereby we gradually let go of our own agenda and open ourselves to what God wants to say to us.

Lectio Divina is a traditional Benedictine practice of scriptural reading, meditation and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's Word. It does not treat scripture as texts to be studied, but, as the Living Word.

Thursday evenings during Lent, please join Clarisa and Kevin Piecuch for an hour of encountering God's Living Word in the rectory at Church from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Bring your bible, bring a friend, and bring an open heart.
